SUMMARY

Rebecca is a highly effective and experienced Legal 500 UK Leading Mediator 2019 who regularly mediates a wide range of commercial and workplace domestic and international disputes. She has over 25 years' experience in assisting global businesses and individuals to resolve disputes and reach agreements. A City qualified solicitor, and owner of several businesses, Rebecca brings commercial acumen, pragmatism and empathy to her mediations. She is fully accredited to mediate in the UK (since 2009), US, and online, and speaks fluent Italian and good working French.

"Goes about her mediation using her calm authority, good manners, skilful communication and excellent grasp of the issues to focus the minds of the parties to reach a settlement". Legal 500 2019

- Assisted clients as a solicitor to resolve international and UK contract disputes (1996 – 2002).
- Mediation Advocate;
- Used mediation herself as a business owner.

MEDIATION APPROACH

(As reflected by feedback) Rebecca's style is calm, relaxed and empathic, quickly putting people from all cultures at ease. Incisive and analytical, she swiftly gets to the nub of issues and focuses on practical solutions. She is articulate and persuasive, and will reality test where necessary. Rebecca is energetic and effective, so her mediations rarely continue into the night.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Rebecca graduated in Law M.A. (Hons) from Downing College, Cambridge and qualified in 1989 as a solicitor in the City of London (Richards Butler (now Reed Smith)). She was an Associate with Laytons in the Company Commercial department from 1989 - 1995. In 1995, Rebecca founded Attree & Co, her own solicitor's practice, specialising in contentious and non-contentious international commercial advice. Since 2002 Attree & Co has provided training to corporates and individuals globally and since 2009 also mediation services. Rebecca is a founder member of Hexagon Mediation.
